What training or experience relevant to camping and/or group work have you had?

What specific skills and talents do you have that would contribute to the camp program?

One aspect of the Mission of Camp Stevens is to encourage individual growth. Participants and staff will have opportunities to discover

- a loving, accepting, and compassionate Christian Community
- respect and responsibility for self, others, and God's creation
- personal expression and creativity
- a deeper sense of spirituality.

How can you personally contribute to our attainment of this goal?

What do you hope to gain from the experience of being a resident staff member?

As a potential staff member, what do you see as your greatest strengths and weaknesses?
